NOMINATIONS ARE NOW BEING ACCEPTED!

Please consider submitting deserving individuals for any of the following:

- ★ Charles W. Itsell Volunteer of the Year Award: An individual whose commitment to the Livingston County United Way and the health and human service needs of our community during the past year goes far "above and beyond" normal volunteerism.
- ★ Donald Epley Lifetime Community Service Award: recognizes an individual who embraces volunteerism and service to the community as a way of life, is committed to the Livingston County United Way, and over the years has made a significant impact to, and contributed to the betterment of, those lives he or she has touched.
- ★ Young Person of Distinction Award: recognizes an area youth to be considered for recognition for outstanding service and leadership to his/her community, showing true selflessness and an overall sense of caring for others.
- ★ Youth Organization of the Year Award: recognizes an area youth organization to be considered for recognition for outstanding service to their community, showing true selflessness and an overall sense of caring for others.
- ★ Randy Rudisill Business-of-the-Year Award: recognizes an area business that perpetuates Randy Rudisill's strong commitment to community, reflecting a commitment to continuous improvement, people, hard work, customers, ethics, and profit.

Awards will be presented at our 2012 Annual Meeting/Volunteer Recognition Breakfast. Nominations are due to the Livingston County United Way by January 27 2012. Nominations can be faxed to 810-494-3004.
